PERKIOMEN VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL

Meet our voyager, Erik. He was sailing the seven seas for many months, searching for the Perkiomen Valley. One late summer morning he reached a small valley, and gazing ahead he saw a beautiful building on the horizon. As he approached this building, he noticed white letters on the front, which said "Perkiomen Valley High School."

"At last!" he thought. "I'm finally here!"

Just in time, too, for at this hour on September 8, a brand new school was opening its doors for the students of Perkiomen Valley.

Keep in mind that Erik is an observer, and we cannot see him, even though he joins in our activities and waves to us.

"New Horizons"

We are ready to depart
For the beginning of a new life,
As we leave well shared memories
And true friends behind.
We will go our separate ways
To seek new ambitions,
With great expectations
Of life long positions,
There are new roads to travel
Toward our goals on the horizon.
So until we meet again,
Good Luck and Farewell.

A ceremony was held on October 6, 1976, to place the cornerstone of Perkiomen Valley High School. Representatives from the community, administration, faculty and student body were present. A box was filled with mementos to put in the time capsule, and the cornerstone was put in place. The pictures at the left show Paul Boyer adding the list of names of the class of 1977 and Karen Cressman, representing the Honor Society, adding a trowel of cement.

Administration

Our administrators were faced with a big job in a new environment back in September.

They have succeeded in making the new Perkiomen Valley High School a pleasant place to learn and have helped the school year run smoothly.

Mr. Thomas P. Henry (Administrative Assistant for Instruction), Mr. Robert W. Cope (Assistant Superintendent), Dr. U. Berkley Ellis (Superintendent), Mr. William Giambrone, Jr. (Business Manager).

The members of the School Board worked very hard during the 1976-'77 school year. Besides all the planning they put into the construction of the new school, they were faced with the tasks of providing the school with new equipment, helping the high school system run smoothly, and most importantly, forming a vital link between the community and the school.

We owe many thanks to these people who devoted much of their time and energy to improve the Perkiomen Valley.

The tapping sounds of typewriters . . . voices giving instructions . . . soft music playing . . . This was the kind of atmosphere the secretaries at P.V. worked in.

Their efficiency was very much appreciated during the busy 76-77 school year.

Ethel M. Wagner
B.S., West Chester State

Mrs. Wagner was always on hand to help students with any problems they had. Besides weighing and measuring all the students, she could be found every morning before 8:00 in her outer office issuing dozens of excuses.

Cafeteria Staff

The move to the new school was a big one for the cafeteria staff. They now have much more space and equipment to provide wholesome, nourishing food for the students and faculty.

The cafeteria manager and her helpers prepare meals of varied menus, meeting all the requirements of good nutrition.

Custodial Staff

Bang! Clang! At 4:00 p.m. every day these sounds can be heard as the janitors close the gates of the hallways.

It wasn't easy for them to make the move to the new school as they had many added responsibilities, but they did a great job of maintaining the high school facilities. Most importantly, they never forgot to smile and chat with the students.

This yearbook symbolizes some of our past achievements and expectations for the future. We could not have accomplished our goals and ideals without the help of the members of the faculty, who have guided us through our four years of high school.

From American history to biology to public speaking, the teachers of Perkiomen Valley High School have provided us with the necessary skills to succeed in life.

They have shown their interest in us as individuals not only in the classroom but in the activities and sports they sponsor.

Most importantly, the teachers have helped to make our senior year at Perkiomen Valley a memorable one. Therefore, we, the class of 1977, proudly present our yearbook, The Voyager, to the faculty.

The boys' cross country team had a very successful season with an 11-1 record. Their hard work and dedication paid off, as they were the Montgomery County Cross Country Champs and Lower Moreland Hilltop Invitational Champs. They placed third in the Bux-Mont League, second in Districts and fifth in States.

The team thanks Mr. Wiser for all his guidance and patience, and the personal sacrifices he made for the team.

He also spread his magic to the girls' cross country team . . .

The girls' season record was 6-2, and with this they placed second in the Bux-Mont League. The girls also were the Lower Moreland Hilltop Invitational Champs, District I Champs, and the number six Class AA girls' cross country team in the state. Mr. Wiser coached both teams through some tough practices and always kept their goals firmly established.

Look at those muscles!

Cross country is hard work.

The Vikings are in the lead.

Varsity Hockey

The 1976 Varsity Hockey team started off their season with hopes of being the Bux-Mont champs, but they had to settle for a second place tie with Central Bucks West instead.

P.V. vs. Wissahickon

This was the Lady Vikings' first league game and they handled it expertly as they "barbecued the chickens," 1-0.

P.V. vs. Pennridge

No competition for the Lady Vikes this time as they sailed past the Rams 4-1.

P.V. vs. Quakertown

The Lady Vikings were up against the strong Panther team but just couldn't manage to tally. The Panthers won 2-0.

P.V. vs. C.B. East

A heart-throbbing game for the Vikes with a last minute 3-2 victory.

P.V. vs. Souderton

A big disappointment for the Lady Vikes as they tied "Big Red" 0-0.

P.V. vs. Upper Perk

The Indians posed no threat as P.V. trounced them 4-1.

P.V. vs. C.B. West

Despite the Vikings' aggressiveness and desire to win, the game ended in a 2-2 tie.

P.V. vs. Hatboro

P.V. again showed they were tops as they topped the Hatters 3-0.

P.V. vs. North Penn

The twelve seniors gave a hearty farewell to their high school hockey years with a decisive victory over the Knights. The final score was 3-1.

The J.V. hockey team had an outstanding season this year. They learned a lot from their Varsity elders as they went through the season with eight shut outs. Their over-all record was 10-2-1 and the league record was 6-2-1. The team looks forward to another winning season next year.

Jodi Trankle, Debbie Kovac, and Kathy Ferenchak fight for P.V.

The 9th grade hockey team (alias the Jr. Lady Vikings) had a great season this year. They finished with an undefeated 6-0 record under the coaching of Mrs. Thomas.

Only three goals were scored on goalie Joan Petrucelli the entire season and high scorer was Jodi Trankle.

Congratulations to each player who put out a great effort! Best of luck next year.

P.V.'s first home game ever. The Vikings christened the new stadium with a 13-7 win. Dave Yoder and Hal Swayze scored for P.V.

P.V. vs. Hatboro

The Vikings played extremely well allowing the Hatters only one good gain. Unfortunately it was 98 yards for a TD and P.V. lost 7-6 .

P.V. vs. C.B. West

P.V. beats West for the second time in four years. It was a real thriller as P.V. won 13-12. Swayze scored both TD's for the Vikings.

P.V. vs. Souderton

The Vikings played a great game, only to lose by one point, 8-7. Swayze scored the TD for P.V.

P.V. vs. North Penn

HOMECOMING!! P.V. wins it big. Coming back from a 14-0 deficit at the half, P.V. won 28-14. Swayze, Gunderson, and Gallagher scored.

P.V. vs. C.B. East

The Vikings made it two big ones in a row as they won 27-14, but it was a costly victory as several players were injured. Miller, Albanesius and Gunderson scored.

Homecoming

October 23, 1976- It was a beautiful day on which nothing could have gone wrong. By 2:00 p.m. the sun was high in the sky as the energetic cheerleaders and spirited fans cheered for the super-psyched Viking football team.

During the halftime show, performed by the P.V. Band, the five lovely girls seen on this page were facing the crowd, and within minutes, Miss Kay Dahms was crowned the 1976 Homecoming Queen.

To end the day on a perfect note, the Vikings fought their way to a 28-14 victory over the North Penn Knights.

Election '76

On November 2, election day across the U.S., students at P.V. participated in a mock election planned by the social studies department and carried out with the help of Mr. Romasco and his communication media students.

Even though the results of the P.V. election were: popular vote: Ford-431; Carter-290; electoral vote: Ford-430; Carter-108, viewers on election night watched Jimmy Carter win the presidency of the U.S.

The attractive bulletin board was done by Mr. Yeakel.

Cheerleaders

Rah, Rah, Rah, Be True To Your School!

This is the motto that ten rowdy girls dressed in orange and brown followed this year. Who were they? The Varsity Cheerleaders, of course, filled with spirit and cheer!

After much hard work and stiff competition at camp last summer, the girls were named Regional Champs.

Their winning recipe? A dash of determination, a pinch of pep, and a handful of hard work! When baked with ten heaping cups of smiles, this creates an aroma of faithfulness that leads the Viking teams on to victory.

Thanks to all their efforts and practices, plus the help and guidance given by Captain Lisa Grozinski and Advisor Mrs. Thomas, they succeeded in giving "Power To The Vikings!"

"Hey, hey, What do you say? Someone take that ball away!"

The J.V. rah-rahs certainly had a busy and exciting year. They sold programs at football games, had bake sales, ran clinics, and attended the Eastern Pa. Invit. Cheerleading Competition with the Varsity Squad.

The youngest cheerleaders in our school were the seven bouncy ninth graders. They could be found supporting their blue and gold boys or practicing after school.

Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at seven a.m. the band practiced on a far hill under the direction of Harry Kline. Frozen grass, wet shoes and socks, and cold instruments are memories of those early morning practices.

The marching band performed in many parades and at all the football games. Activities this year included selling Christmas greens and tons of delicious hoagies. All members worked toward the big event of the year-the band trip!!

The basketball season got off to an early start this year. Playing Oley Valley in a non-league game to head off the season, the Vikings trampled the Lynxes. After that, the Vikings played three more non-league games before starting the Bux-Mont league with Hatboro-Horsham. One problem that coach Svanson didn't have this year was his back-up bench. Having twelve players of equal ability, he could always put his faith in whatever five players were out on the court.

It was tough for the players to handle some of their losses when they only gave up the game by one or two points, but these games were balanced out with suspenseful and pressure-filled victories. The atmosphere of the fans was always loyal and never ending.

All in all, P.V.'s bouncers did a really fine job.

"This is touch, not tackle!"

Coached by Miss Anders, the girls' varsity basketball team had a disappointing record for the 1976-77 season. The girls started out with some easy non-league games against Springford and Methacton, but they were stopped by the skilled North Penn Maidens and the C.B. West Bucks.

High scorers for the season were Cheryl Wallace, Ellen Lachenmayer, and Wendy DeWane.

With only four seniors leaving and a surplus of talented underclassmen returning, maybe next year's team will have a winning season.

"Shoot it up; put it in!"

Cheryl Wallace: "I'm coming, Els!"

Pat Davis pulls through.

Chris Smiley: "Time out!"

Wrestling

The 1976-77 wrestlers were a determined group of guys who placed energy before food on match days, and were easily recognized by their bulging (?) muscles and white ear protectors.

They found as they struggled through the long season that they improved with every opposing team, even though they didn't chalk up many wins.

The home stands were filled with more fans than ever before and literally went wild when heavyweight and captain Bill Neill came out onto the mat.

Coach Burkholder had much to be proud of with his super matmen.

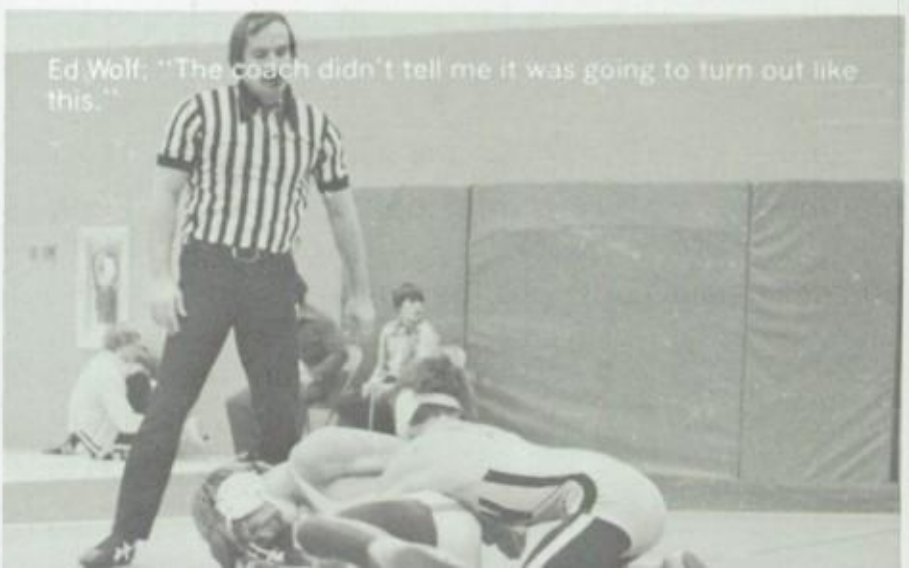
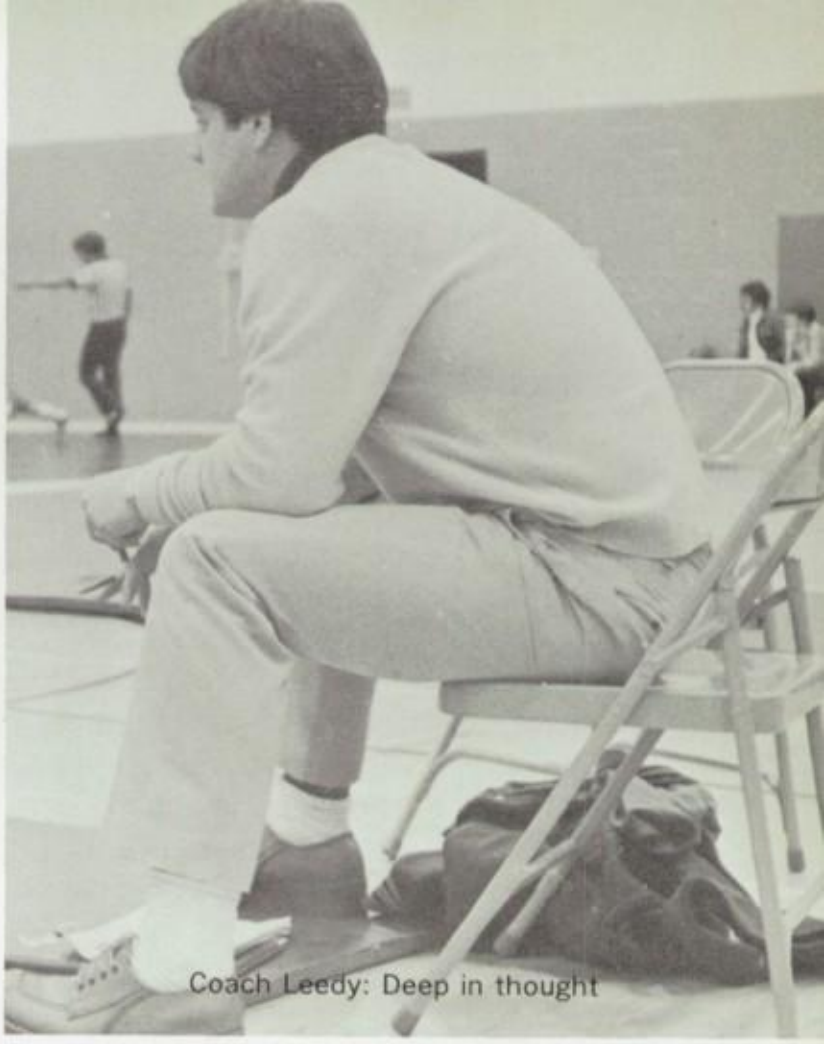
Ted Gundo: "You guys are going up the down staircase."

George Steinmetz: "Gee, this mat smells funny."



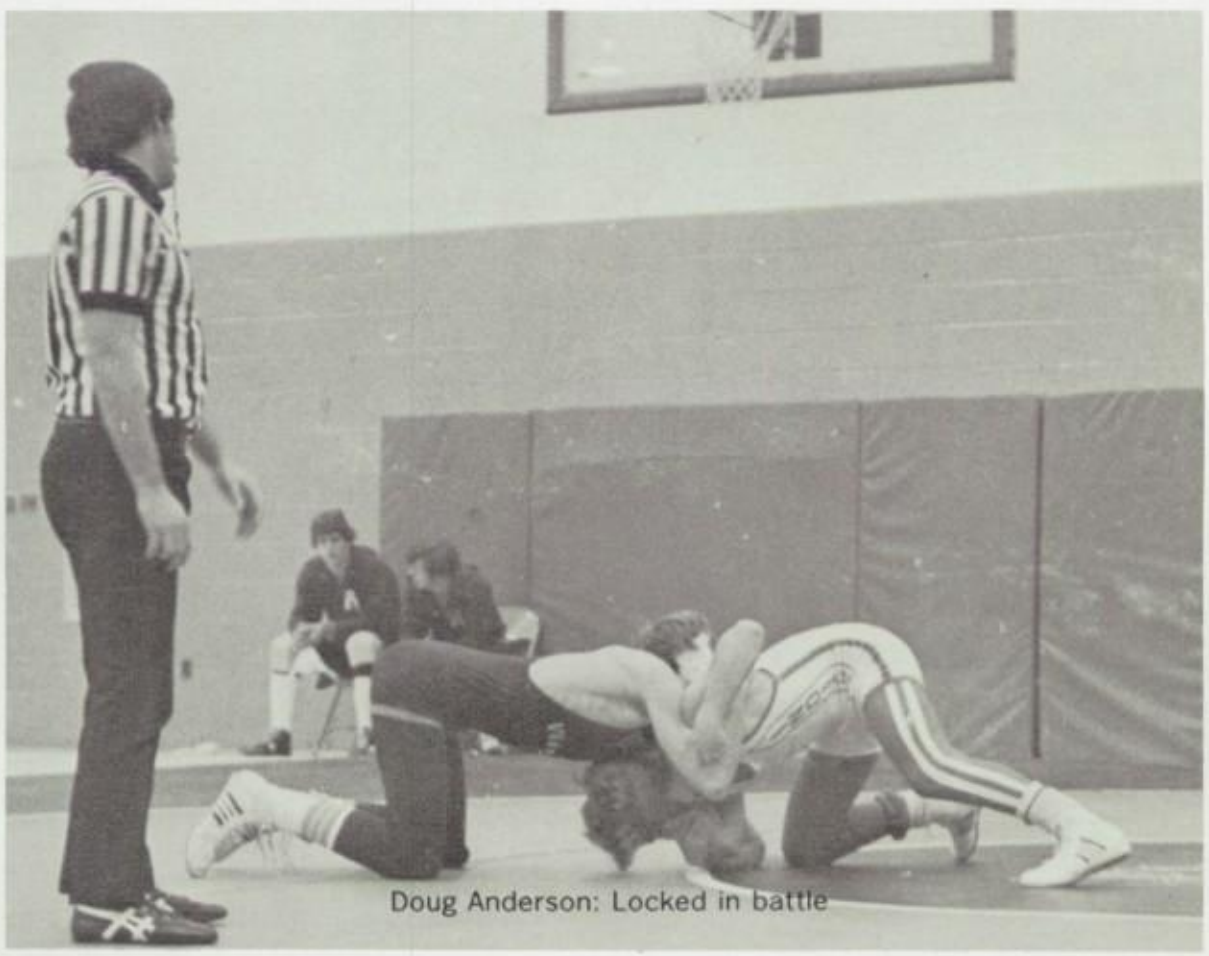
Ed Wolf: "The coach didn't tell me it was going to turn out like this."

Mike Young scores two for P.V.

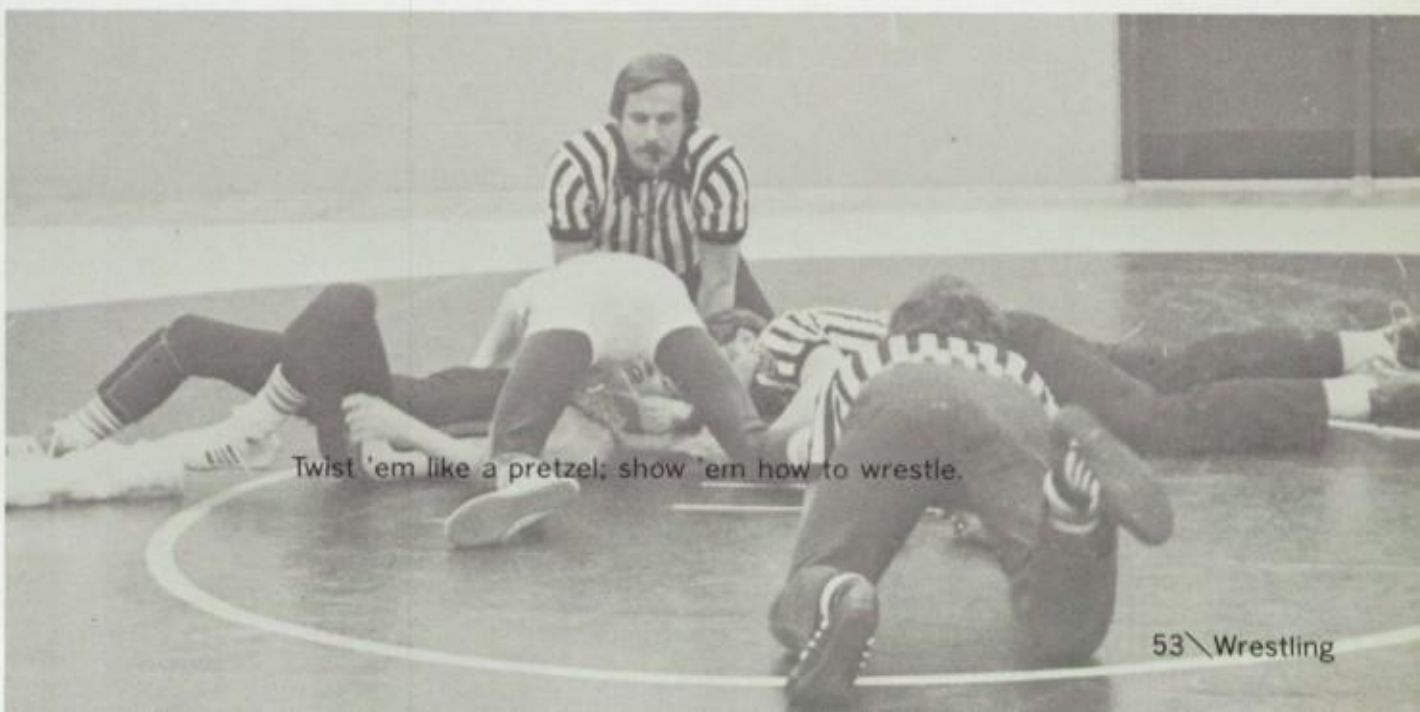


Coach Leedy: Deep in thought

Teddy Gundo: Leading the pack



Doug Anderson: Locked in battle



Twist 'em like a pretzel; show 'em how to wrestle.

Captain Gayle leading the cheers

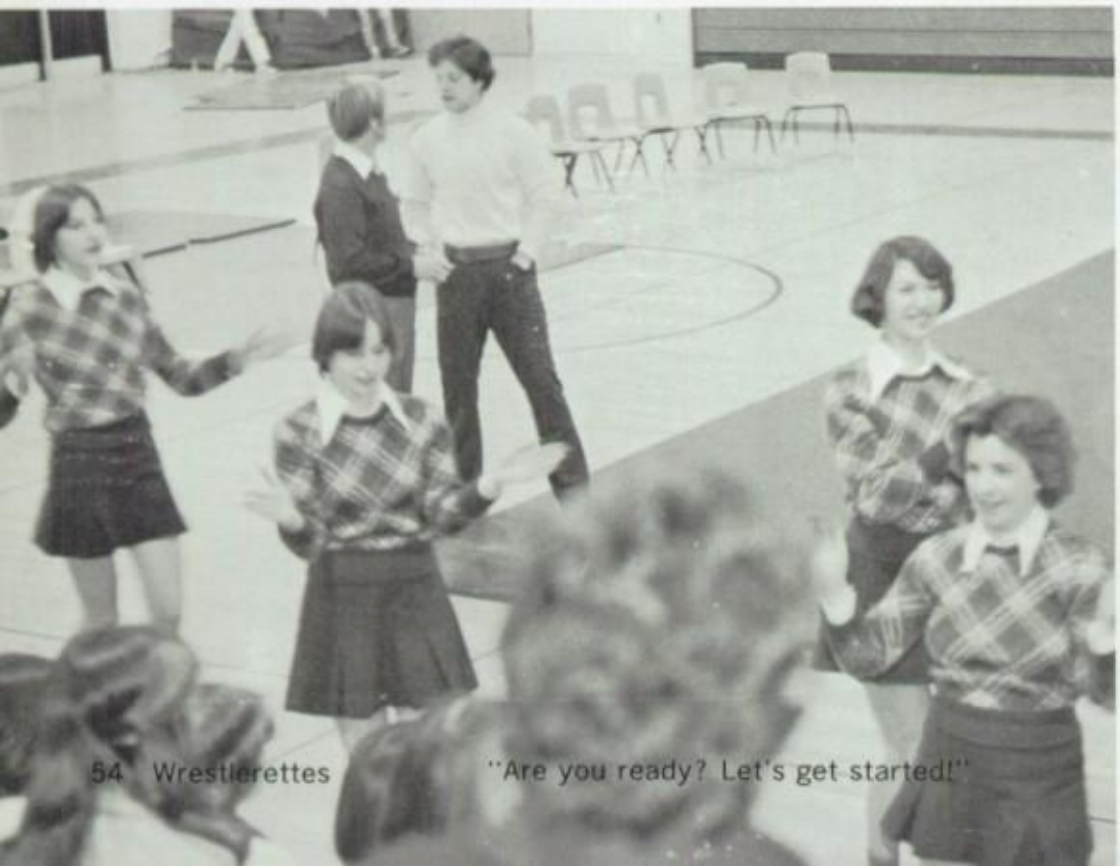
P.V.'s wrestling cheerleaders faithfully followed P.V.'s matmen through a long, cold winter.

The girls practiced hard and always tried to do their best at the wrestling meets. Also, the cheerleaders had the opportunity to help at the Christmas Tournament held at our school in December. They certainly had a season to remember.

Julie, Gayle, and Kathy: "Set!"



"Are you ready? Let's get started!"

Cindy Walters: "Look at this!!!"

Missing from picture: Tim Hetrich, John Warren, Mindy Wismer, Pina Augustine, Chris Calkins, Lori Cuono, Bob Deering, Nina Kochersperger.

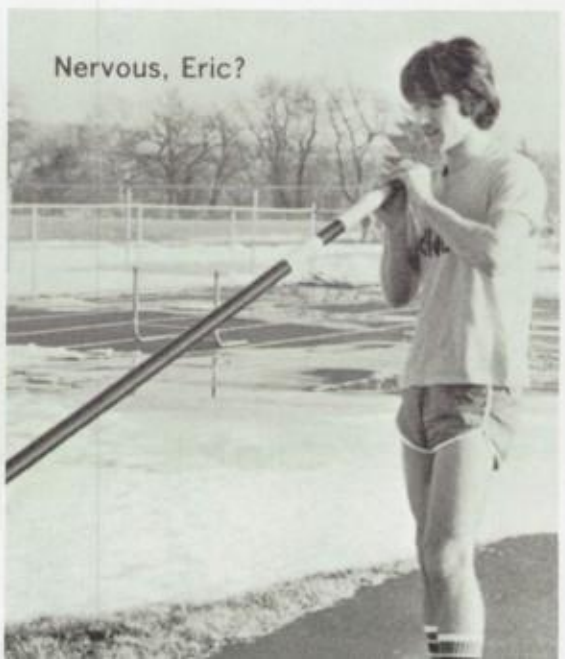
Some merry members of the team

If there is one thing the Winter Track Team will never forget, it is how Mother Nature brought them one of the coldest and longest winters this area has ever known. Nevertheless, not rain nor snow nor even sleet could stop the Winter Track Team from their appointed rounds.

P.V.'s Polar Bears were not always easy to recognize underneath the layers of sweats, gloves, and hats. They traveled to Norristown and nearby colleges such as Widener and Haverford, to participate in meets. Some of the events included the distance medley, boys' and girls' javelin, pole vault, triple jump, sprint relay and the high hurdles.

The team would like to thank Mr. Wiser for all of his time and effort. Without him the season wouldn't have been as exciting or as rewarding.

On your mark . . .



Nervous, Eric?

Silver Bells

"Silver Bells ... hear them ring ... soon it will be Christmas Day!"

The Senior Class again carried out the tradition of sponsoring the Winter Ball, and this year it was held in our own school's cafeteria on December 4,1976. The decorations and table settings were especially nice and the dinner was excellent. After Miss Jackie Frantz, escorted by Brett Bauman, was crowned Winter Ball Queen, she and the other members of the Court danced to the theme song, "I Only Have Eyes For You." The Court and their escorts included Melissa Cornell and Dave Yoder; Carol Lehman and John Miller; Missy Friday and Jack Law; and Barrie DaParma and Scott Blue.

All this splendor and the excellence of the music played by Harvest, contributed to an enchanting evening!

Schulte (coach).

The swimming pool was an added extra to the new high school this year. As a result of this, a new club was formed. Led by Mr. Schulte the swim club had several meets with fine results. Even though no team score was kept, many of PV's swimmers did very well. Eventually, with time and experience, the swim club may be in a league and have a reputable showing.

Ping Pong

"Now if the big hand's on the three . . . "

Every Thursday at 2:45 you can hear the bouncing of that little white ball in the halls. The game? Ping pong. Sponsored by Mr. Adams, the only requirements are an interest in the game and in practice. Though the members of this club weren't in a league, they made up their own tournaments and had a lot of fun.

Mr. Adams spins the ball.

Throughout the year, the aCapella choir harmonized sixty-seven voices into pleasing entertainment for their concerts and special occasions. Kreg Ulery, Dawn Bannan, Norman Lester, Steve Faust, and Karen Richter were selected for District Chorus in November.

Spring saw them spending long hours concentrating on the year's highlight, Carmen.

The choir is to be commended for the excellent job they have done in earning recognition and upholding the reputation they have earned.

Phoenix

Not only was Phoenix the mythological bird of Egypt, or the sun capital of Arizona, but it was the name of PV's singing group.

For the first time ever, Phoenix performed outside of school, at Indian Valley Country Club and at Augustus Lutheran Church.

Phoenix had a successful year because they enjoyed making music and being with each other.

FRONT ROW: B. DaParma, R. Forrest, N. Claycomb, C. Wilkie, D. McIlroy. BACK ROW: K. Richter, K. Peterson, L. Mauger. Missing from picture: A. Murray, M. Nace, P. Murray, G. Thorpe, A. Grove.

Ensemble/Madrigal Choir

Ensemble was a group of students in grades nine through twelve who liked to sing popular music.

The choir met two or three times a week to prepare programs for local organizations, such as the Rotary Club and various church groups.

The music ranged from rock oratorios to John Denver's music, and it was a lot of fun for everyone involved.

The Madrigal Choir was a new addition in the music department this year.

The choir was small simply because madrigal music was designed for small choral groups rather than a large chorus.

Although madrigal choirs originated in Elizabethan times and the music was very complex, Mr. Charles and his choir experimented with old and modern pieces of music.

The choir gave only one performance in the spring, but next year they hope to fully establish themselves.

Scott: "This game is too easy!"

When you consider the fact that last year's baseball team had only four seniors, you've got to admit that they did a great job throughout their season. They finished in sixth place, but four players were named to the Bux-Mont team: Mike McCollum made the second team while John Miller, Bob Risher and Keith Zimmerman made Honorable Mention.

With eleven letterman returning, the team's future looks bright.

Bob Risher taking it easy.

Swayze steps into success.

Zim: "Can't wait to get home!"

Hal Swayze and Keith Zimmerman ready for action.

Lacrosse

Starting practice in early March, the Lady Vikings cradled through wind, rain and frigid temperatures throughout the season, and what did it get them? A respectable fourth place finish in the Bux-Mont League.

P.V. vs. C.B.East

The Lady Vikes began the season with a game against the Patriots which ended in a 7-7 tie.

P.V. vs. Pennridge

P.V. made a great comeback and whipped the Rams 11-2

P.V. vs. Wissahickon

It was a cold day in April, and P.V. was ahead at the half. In the end, though, it turned out to be a 4-4 tie.

P.V. vs. Upper Perk

The girls showed their talent in this game by beating the Indians 14-4.

P.V. vs. North Penn

An easy win for Valley as our girls scored seven times and the Knights only three.

P.V. vs. Hatboro

Another exciting victory for the Lady Vikes as they beat the Hatters 10-5.

P.V. vs. Souderton

Souderton was a piece of cake for P.V. as Valley's girls scalped the Indians 11-4.

P.V. vs. C.B. West

The '76 lacrosse team ended their season with a 7-3 loss to West.

Boys' Spring Track

The 1976 boys' track team started the season off strong, beating Methacton, Pottsgrove, Upper Perk and for the first time, Boyertown.

The over-all record was five wins and six losses. The team placed third in the Quakertown relays, fourth in the Upper Perk relays and finished seventh in the Bux-Mont League. To top off the season, they took first place in the PIAA District I meets and sent nine people to the state finals.

The team would like to give special thanks to Mr. Wiser for all his hard work and support.

The 1976 girls' track team started out small, but they worked hard. Practice was every night after school and did they ever run!

While they didn't have a winning season, this was only the second year for girls' track at P.V. With all the new people and equipment, next year should bring a more successful season.

Cindy Lewis on the run.

P.V.'s girls are #1!

Sandy Kehs: "Only one more lap to go!"

Lise Mauger: "Bill Neill, eat your heart out!"

Cindy Bildstein, tired but tough.

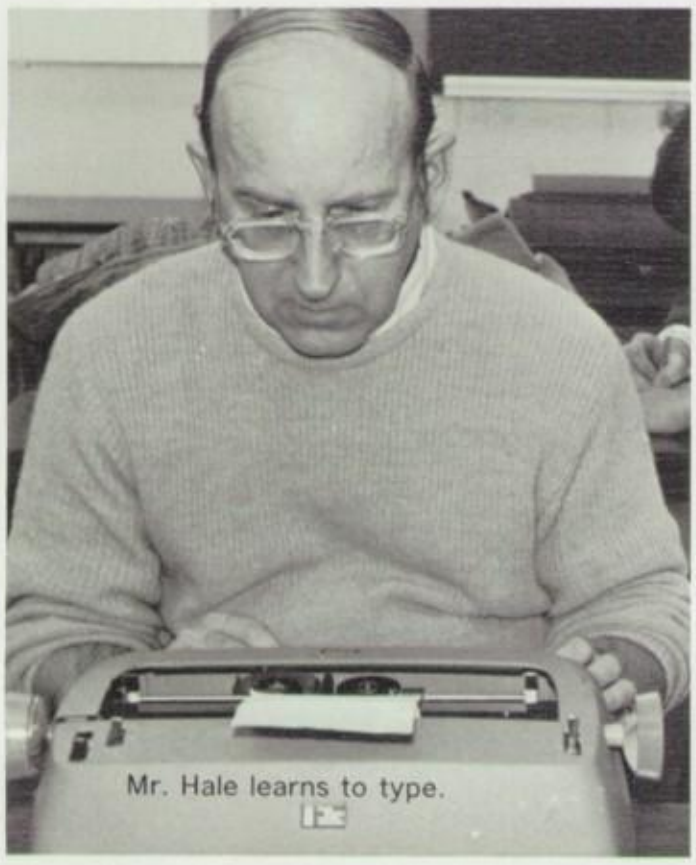
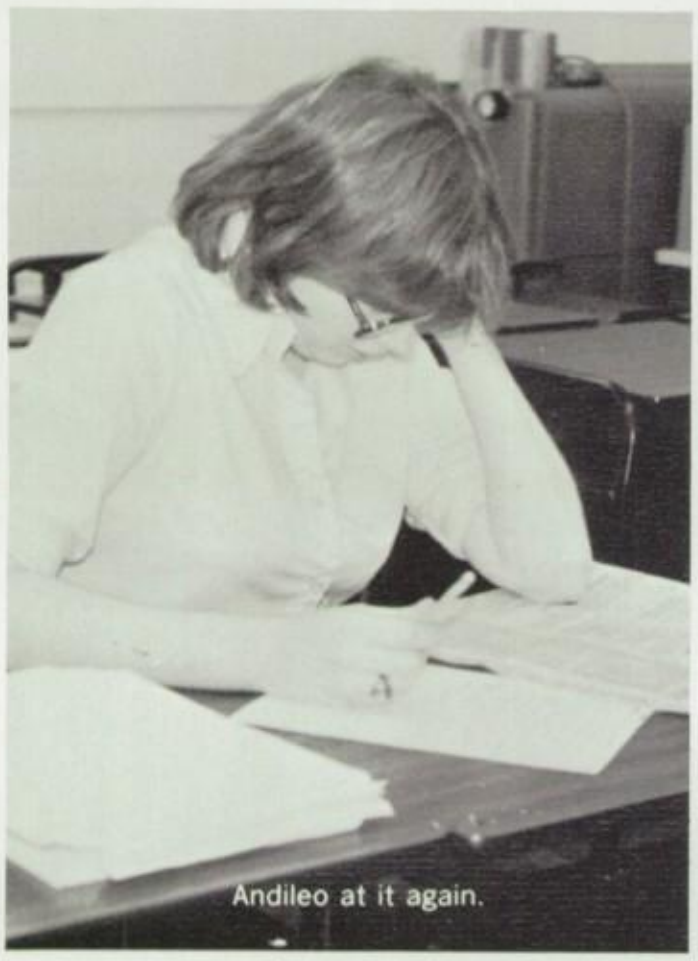
National Honor Society's activities this year included tutoring students, Involvement Day, the College Tea and guided tours through the school.

It is hoped that the services of the National Honor Society will continue next year.

Newspaper
Headlines . . . Deadlines . . . We Hope They're Read Lines!



Mr. Hale learns to type.



Andileo at it again.

Dave Orsini writes the news.

P.V.'s school newspaper, The Viking Gazette, underwent some big changes in its second year. Instead of having the paper printed here in school, the staff sent it to the A.G. Halldin Publishing Company in Indiana, Pa. The result was a professional-looking newspaper, complete with headlines and pictures.

The Viking Gazette staff was also bigger this year and a great number of them were underclassmen who have gained enough experience to keep journalism alive at Perkiomen Valley.

All the members of the staff, and their fearless advisor, Mr. Hale, have succeeded in providing a little entertainment for the student body each month through the year.

Office Aides

What was it like being an office aide? Well, any one of these thirteen girls could tell you that it took a lot of wear and tear on their feet, and a lot of smiles when they didn't feel like smiling. How important was their job? Very! They did everything from checking attendance to paging people for Miss Schaeffer. In other words, they did a terrific job of helping our secretaries!

Guidance Aides

The guidance aides proved to be very helpful to Mrs. Maerz this year. They were responsible for running errands, typing, and doing office work. Besides getting office experience, the girls found this a very worthwhile way to spend their study halls.

Library Assistants

With the large, new library, the library assistants had a tough job shelving books and filing cards. They performed with great efficiency and helped Mr. Greager organize the library.

FRONT ROW: Theresa Green, Fran Bateman, Cindy Diniglio, Anne Lachenmayer, Margaret Shutt, Patty Leister, Wendy Gaul. SECOND ROW: Rosemarie Brennan, Mary Green, Jackie Thomas, Lisa Benner, Melody Reitz, Lee Joseph, Cathy Cassel, Karen Heacock, Nancy Ford, Karen Peterson. THIRD ROW: Sue Warren, Carol Lehman, Steve Bergen, Nancy Van Horn, Roxann Darwin, Sue Bildstein, Sandy Beury, Lucy Bateman. BACK ROW: Richard Mack, Steve Foust, Joe André, Dave Newton, Paul Boyer, Missy Friday, Sharon Fischer, Kay Dahms, Cindy Walters. When we made the move to the new school, Mr. Schulte was very excited about starting the swimming program. Students were recruited to assist him as pool aides.

The aides helped during gym classes by getting out equipment, putting away bathing suits and towels, helping students perfect their skills and checking the pool temperature.

They've helped make the swimming program at P.V. High a reality.

Gym Aides

Assisting the teacher, taking attendance, assembling equipment, and serving as referees are the duties of P.V.'s gym aides. Mr. Schulte formed the gym aide program this year and is proud of the help the aides have given the gym teachers. The program is completely voluntary; students give up their study halls to perform these duties.

This year, for the first time, Mrs. Wagner has six aides to help her weigh students, run errands and keep the attendance files. Mrs. Wagner thinks they did a great job!

Yearbook

Never has so much been owed to so few. Capturing their final high school year in print was important to a few seniors who put in much hard work and time on this Voyager. Many hours were spent by the yearbook staff taking pictures, laying out pages, proofreading and typing copy, and collecting advertisements.

Was there any fun in doing this? Yes, believe it or not, working on the yearbook was rather enjoyable. When we weren't arguing with fellow staff members, getting yelled at by the publisher's representative or lying about making the deadlines, we could be found watching television, raiding the candy machine, dumping our suffering advisor in the trash can, creating humorous (?) stories on the blackboard, having fun in the snow, or gossiping (if there had been a tape recorder in the yearbook room, it would have been Watergate all over again).

Special thanks must be given to our editor-in-chief, Jodi Lacey, for all the hours she put in, to Mr. O'Brien for not blowing his top sooner than he did, to the custodians for putting up with us, and to Mrs. Humphrey for her patience and understanding (though we did give her gray hairs).

We, the yearbook staff of '77, sincerely hope you will enjoy reliving a few moments of the year.

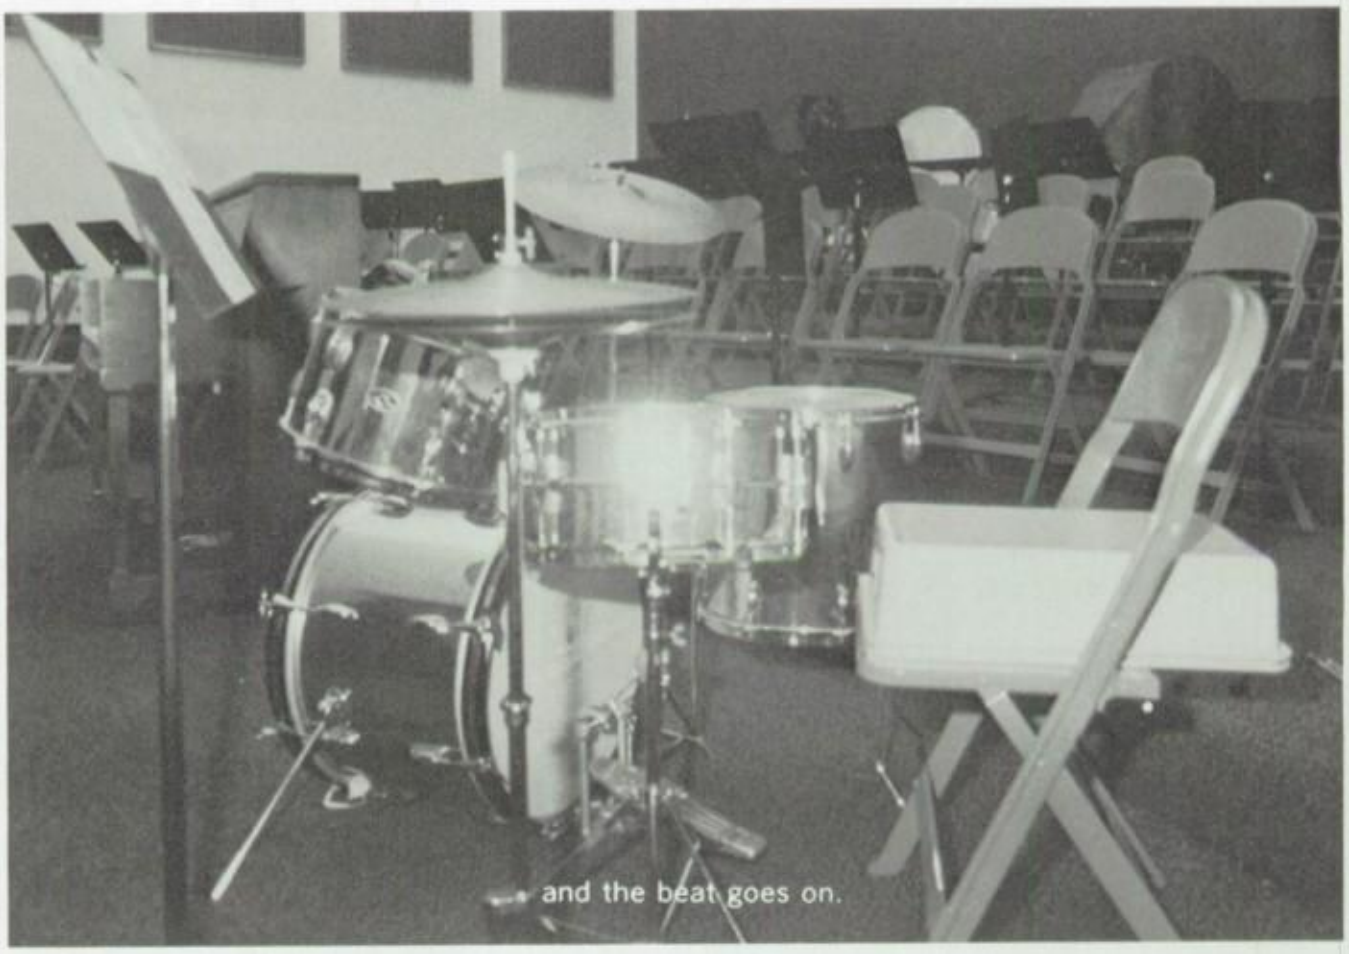
When December rolled around, it was time for the marching band members to stop humming football tunes and start rehearsing for their annual "Sounds of America" concert.

Under the leadership of Mr. Kline, the band practiced diligently many hours each week. Fortunately, morning rehearsals were kept at a minimum and night rehearsals were saved until the week before the concert.

Anyone who attended their concerts knows that all their hard work and effort paid off.



and the beat goes on.

P.V.'s golf team had a great season last fall. Their record was 6-7 overall, and they placed third in the Bux-Mont Championships. John Ferenchak was chosen to be on the first team All Bux-Mont, while Joe McSloy received honorable mention.

The team thanks coaches Mr. Hargadon and Mr. Hale for guiding the great golfers through their successful season.

Audio Visual

This year the A.V. Club was kept very busy working throughout the school with all their new equipment. The members, who were primarily ninth and tenth graders, were responsible for the Election '76 coverage, video recordings for English classes, picture development for various purposes, and equipment maintenance.

Bowling

The bowling team had one of the longest seasons of the year. They bowled every week from October to March with a special Christmas party in December.

The team bowled regularly with Pottstown and North Penn, using 422 lanes in Limerick as their home base. They also participated in an interdistrict competition during February and March in Lansdale.

At the end of the year, trophies were awarded to members who showed special individual talent.

Mr. Yeakel: Babyface!

The Youth Education Association is the only service organization at P.V. In previous years the group has won various awards and honors for its accomplishments. The Y.E.A. members this year strove to better these achievements which was an extremely difficult task to undertake.

Along with spreading goodwill throughout the school and community, Y.E.A members learn the value of leadership.

The backbone of the group is Mr. Yeakel, their determined and devoted advisor. With him as a guiding light, the group has been successful.

Careers

Vo-Tech

Each day of the school year, many students left their books and papers to learn a trade through experience. In other words, they traveled to the North Montco Vo-Tech school in Lansdale.

During their three-hour stay, the students studied Cosmetology, Auto Mechanics, Carpentry, Food Preparation, Masonry, Mechanical Drafting, Auto Body or Architectural Drafting.

One of the school's organizations, V.I.C.A. (Vocational Industrial Clubs of America), was an important club that made competition between students possible. Winners in this club can compete at an international level.

The Vo-Tech school and its students are a very important part of P.V. High and the community. The school provides a great learning environment for the students who will ultimately become productive citizens.

C.I.T.E.

Quite a few seniors took advantage of the Cooperative Industry Training Experience program this year. It's no wonder since the C.I.T.E. program gave students the opportunity to learn, make money and receive first-hand experience in the working world.

The Vo-Tech school sponsored this program requiring that all students maintain a C average and not work more than twenty hours a week. The students were graded while on the job and once a week they met with their supervisor.

All who participated in this program found that it was an invaluable experience to gain knowledge in the field which might become their career.

This year's Careers Program, otherwise known as Health Careers, was expanded; and there were more students involved than ever before.

Mrs. Fenstermacher was in charge of the program which she designed for seniors who were interested in doing volunteer work for one semester.

Once a week students traveled to such places as Montgomery Hospital, Collegeville-Trappe Elementary School, Pennhurst, the Child Development Center, Perkiomen Valley Middle School, and various doctors' offices.

Each senior got out of the program what she put into it, but most agreed that the experience was worth it, as it helped them make decisions about their futures.

Community Service

Students working with patients ... helping teachers doing clerical work ... being with people ... this was what the Community Service class was all about.

Mr. Grant was in charge of sixteen students in his semester class.

Fairview Village Day Care Center, County Community Center, Norristown State Hospital and Ken-Crest were a few of the places the students worked.

Taking the class gave students training for college, ideas for the future or just volunteer work for enjoyment.

Library Secretary

P.V. High's library welcomed a new face this year-Mrs. Shirley Belli. Not many students saw her in action, as she only worked part-time for Mr. Greager, but she kept busy in the library office typing book orders, preparing cards for new library books and processing incoming book orders.

Unseen and unimportant? Far from it! Mrs. Belli had a hard and important job. Without her help, the new library would have been chaos.

Thank you, Mrs. Belli!

Always around, they outnumber the Seniors
But behind every graduating class lies
An eager bunch of underclassmen.
Without them, this school
would be quiet and empty.

It is they who will be Seniors in years to come And proud then,
as we are now,
to know such underclassmen.

"And what do you want for Christmas, Chris?"

Barbara is ready for Christmas.

The 1976-77 school year would not have been complete without the special students pictured here. Not a day went by without one of these students giving you a "hi" or rushing up to talk during lunch.

Special Ed. was more than just another class. It was an experience well remembered by those who learned and those who taught.

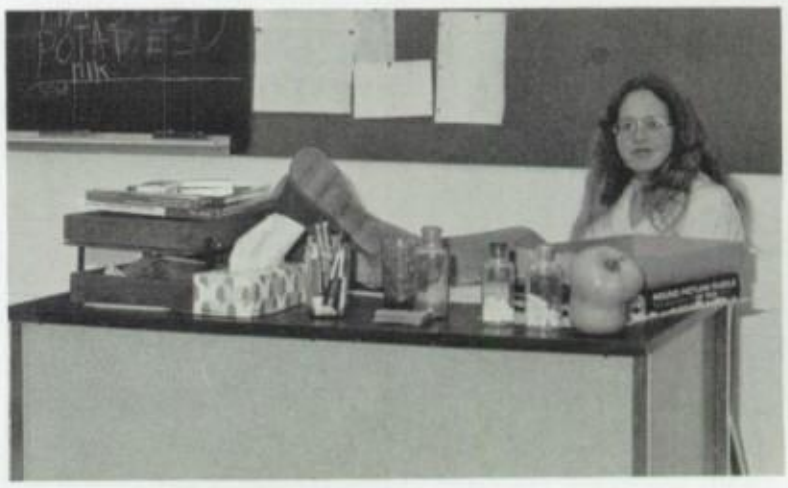
Fran Bateman points out the right answer.

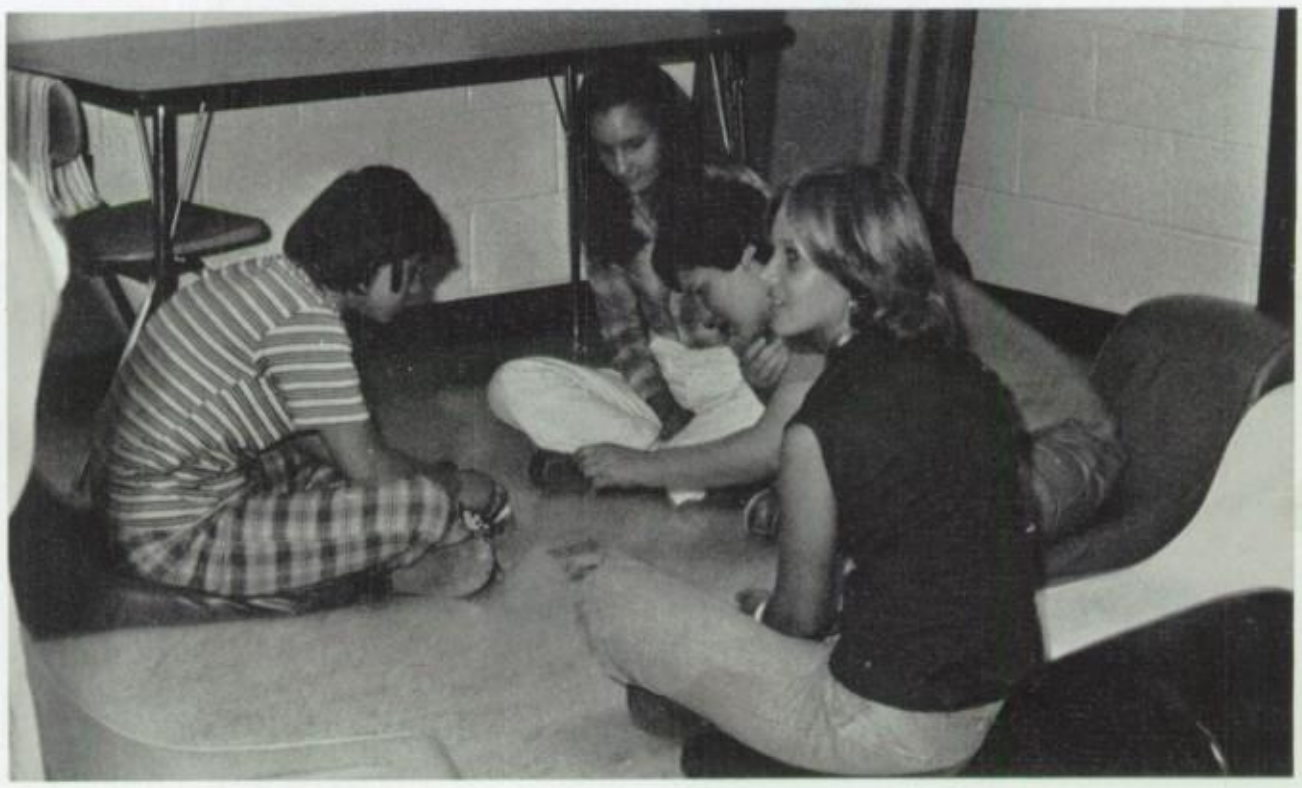


Sandy Schweigert: "I'm Mrs. Kauffman's replacement."

Some Special Education aides helped the students with their math, while others played records and sang with them. Even though the aides all did different things while they were in Room 108, they all had one thing in common-their love for working with children.

The aides sacrificed their study halls to work with the students under the direction of Mrs. Kauffman.

For those who are thinking of a career in helping the handicapped, this experience prepares them for the future.



Melissa Cornell gives a smile of satisfaction.

Freshmen

Janice Simons (president), Mindy Wismer (vice president), Christine Smiley (secretary), Barbara Augustine (treasurer), M. Ruppel (advisor).

In the beginning, they were meek and mild. So far they've done well, but they have a long way to go. They will rise to the top, guided by those before them. Freshmen are people and are nice to know.

This year's ninth grade, the newest members of the school, already made plans for their Senior Year. The officers were always busy collecting dues which they used for a ninth grade dance in March and a class trip.

Mr. Ruppel, the class advisor, gave his advice (and good humor) on many decisions.

The freshmen will continue to plan fund-raisers for their "big year" in the future.

The excitement of the new high school this year put a new and different glow in the class of'79. These sophomores always stood up for each other and made a big impression on the rest of the student body.

The long and eventful year started out with a dues drive that gave them great results. Then came Christmas and the selling of candy canes. How could anyone forget their Cherry Tree Hop with Surface Music? After that, came the long-awaited arrival of their class rings. As the sophomores asked the upperclassmen to turn their rings, you could tell that that was the turning point, the initiation of their high school days to come.

Face it, you've got to put your faith in the class of '79.

This was a big year for the class of '78. They really let the student body know that Juniors were alive.

Some of their activities included performing their first class play, Chicken Every Sunday, preparing a cake and poster for the fall athletes, sending a Christmas fruit basket to the Johnson Home, and planning a memorable prom.

The class officers gave special thanks to their advisors, Mr. Conver and Mr. Keenan for guiding them through a successful year.

Foreign Exchange Student

This year Perkiomen Valley hosted only one foreign exchange student-Miss Manami Watanabe from Yamanaski-Ken, Japan. Manami came to the United States in August and was the guest of Seniors Sandy Schweigert and Jean Smith during her stay with us.

She studied with the class of '78 and participated in many activities such as chorus, the Jr. Class Play, band, ensemble, Student Forum and Special Ed.

Manami's opportunity to stay abroad for a year was a great experience for her and it was a valuable experience for the students of P.V. High.

If you'd like to write to Manami, her address is:

Manami Watanabe
827 Shimoyoshida, Fujiyoshida-shi
Yamanashi-Ken, 403
Japan

Junior Class Play

Sherri Hontz: "Walking on your toes does wonders for the calves.

Cindy Kurylo at ease before curtain time — Is she?

The class of '78 presented the delightful production of "Chicken Every Sunday" on November 19 and 20. They were the first class ever to perform on the high school stage, so their show was a special event.

With only three and one half weeks of practice, the cast did an excellent job of portraying the Blachmans and all their crazy boarders in Tuscon, Arizona.

Mrs. Kauffman contemplates the opening scene.

Tim: "Oh, Mr. Kirby, we tried to warn you!"

"They're clean, Daddy. We just washed them."

Now we must say good-bye to the world we have known and lived — our carefree high school days will soon be only memories, for the time has come to seek our dreams and fulfill our hopes ... for the future is ours.

This year's seniors were great. They were into everything ... seniors in hockey, football, track, and basketball ... seniors in Y.E.A., Student Forum, chorus, band, and cheerleading.

The class officers worked hard to raise money for the Winter Ball, graduation and the class trip. Our Senior Year was certainly one to remember.

Oh thank heaven for '77.

IN MEMORY OF

Deborah Ann DeLong
(1959-1974)

"A True Friend Is Always There And Is Never Forgotten" — D.L.D.

Debbie DeLong was a girl who always wore a bright, happy smile. When she was among her numerous friends, she always had a laugh to share.

Debbie was a lover of the outdoors. Being out in the fresh air, running and discovering nature-that was a big part of her.

Debbie was and is a true friend to many in the class of '77-she is with us all and will never be forgotten.

"Deborah Ann DeLong ... was not given length of days, but in her few short years of living, Debbie packed our lives with her love and gentleness. She is indeed sadly missed by her family and friends."

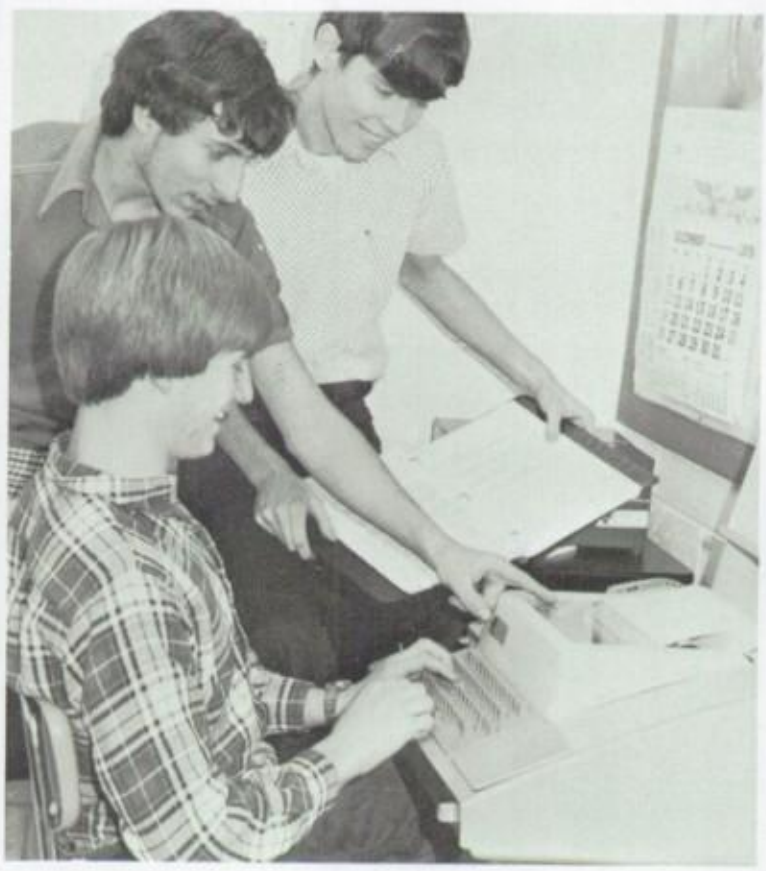
The Life And Times Of '77

1-2-3; 1-2-3

Sue Bono talks to the animals.

Don't let the sparks get in your eyes.

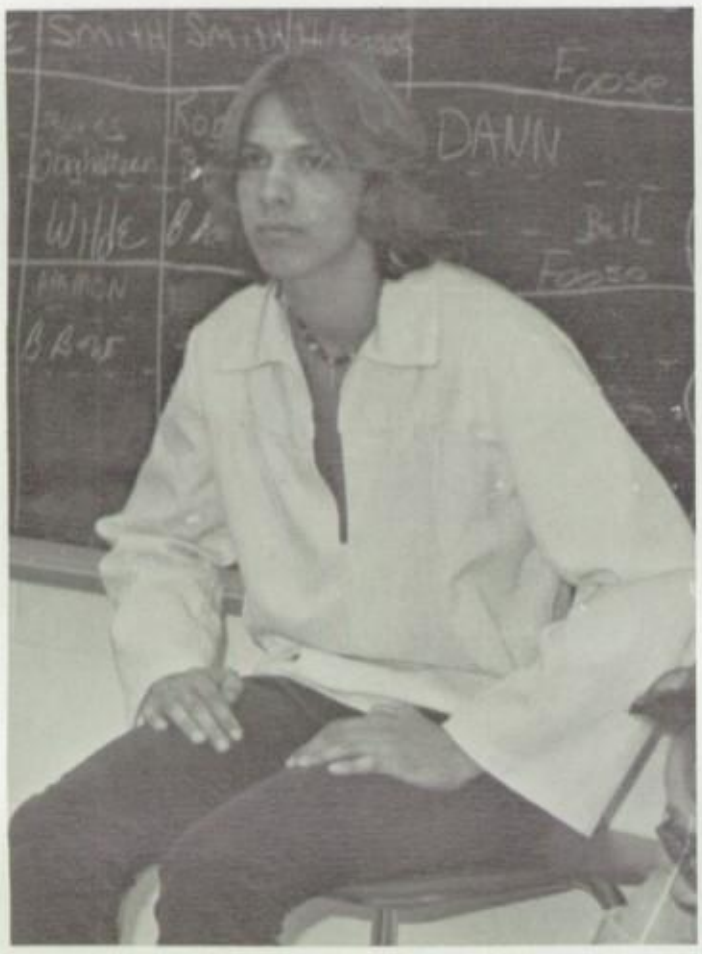
"Let me entertain you."



Ed Wolf: "And this is the self destruct button."

Kris Hamm loaded down with books

Witch way to the pumpkin patch?



Professor Don

?!? Leslie!!!

Dennis Williams: "This is a cinch!"

"So this is it, huh?"

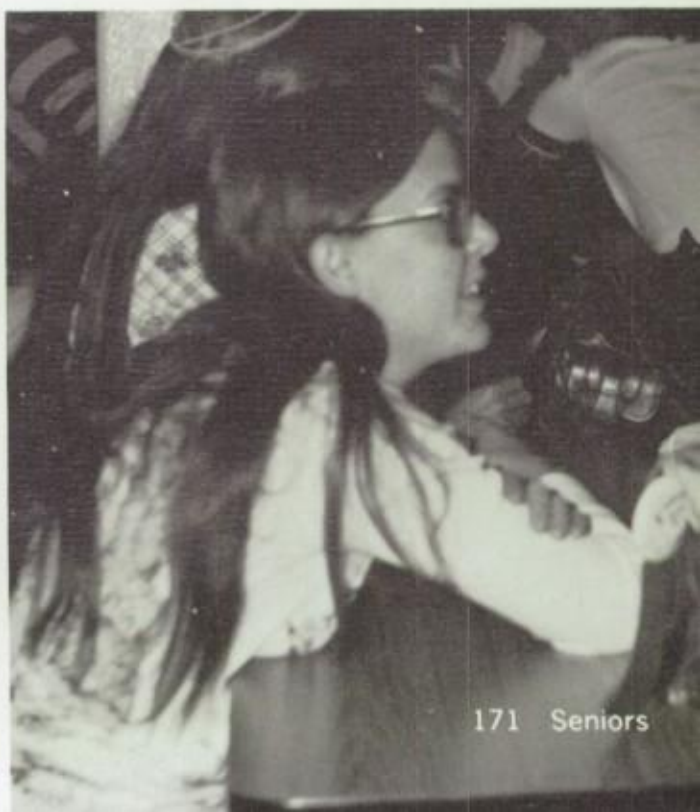
Dave: "What a gadget!"

Chris Christians at Christmas Tea

Bonnie and Loretta: A real puzzler

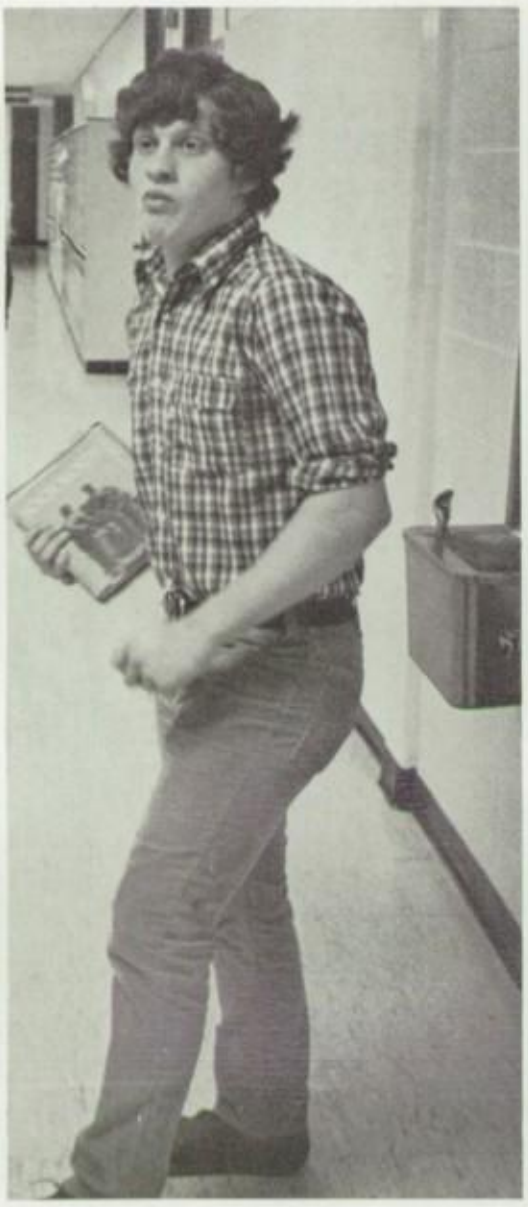
Gwen: "I can't believe we're here!"



We, the class of 1977, being of unsound mind and body, hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

As a class we will:
To all underclassmen, "TROUBLE".
To the freshmen, Amy Vanderbilt's book of etiquette.
To the sophomores, a trash can big enough for all their spitballs so they can clean up for their junior year.
To the juniors, lots of luck in selling the leftover Perkiomen Valley charms.
To Souderton High, ten gallons of paint remover.
The yearbook staff wills the "city zoo" to next year's staff. Good Luck!
Varsity cheerleaders will their spirit to the upcoming varsity squad.
Paul Boyer wills his ability to eat to Brad Ziegler.
Patti Davis wills her calculus book to anyone foolish enough to take it.
Lisa Diltz wills all her broken fingernails and empty blue pens to the business department.
Sharon Fischer wills her apple bites to the "C" lunch table, and her false teeth to the track team.
Bob Grimley wills his hair to Mr. Hale.
Lisa Grozinski wills her physics labs to some lucky junior.
Tim Hetrich wills his track shoes to the freshmen class.
Greg Jacobson wills a gym pass to Bill Faulkner.
Lee Joseph wills her artistic ability to her little sister Jill.
Jodi Lacey wills her circular slide rule to next year's physics classes. Have phun!
Andy Momme wills his brain to science.
Lisa Moser wills her chocolate chip cookies to the girls' varsity sports.
Robin Zacharias and Ted Gunderson will peace and quiet to the school after they graduate.
Second period Spanish IV wills Mrs. Wiser some "HELP"
Third period psychology wills Mr. Burkholder spelling lessons.
Seventh period physics wills Mr. Wiser speech lessons.

Paul Boyer (president), M. Fenstermacher (advisor), Karen Cressman (vice president), Carol Lehman (secretary), H. Lawson (advisor), Deena Williamson (treasurer).



Spit it out, John.

Muzzy: Trying to master the fine art of sewing

Monica Wince: "You sexy devil, you."

Jim Cuono: Breaker one-nine

Lisa Driebelbis: "I hate crowds."

"When do we get to see the building?"

Perkiomen Valley, our High School tried and true,
We praise your name forever, in all that we do;
Your hallowed halls of learning, hold memories old and new;
Dear Perkiomen Valley High, we place our trust in you.
Your spirit's always with us, no matter where we go,
The loyalty we pledge you, forever will show;
The pathway to our future, lies firm within your walls;
Dear Perkiomen Valley High, to you, we will be true.
